September 2026

The Editor, The Indian Express, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Concern over severe traffic congestion near school premises.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local traffic authorities to the severe traffic congestion occurring daily outside St. Xavier's High School during the morning and afternoon hours.

The complete absence of a functional traffic signal and designated pedestrian crossings has created a highly chaotic and unsafe environment for our students. Over-speeding vehicles and unregulated parking by local vendors further aggravate the situation, putting young lives at immense risk while crossing the main road. Despite multiple written requests to the local municipality, no concrete preventive measures have been implemented yet.

I strongly urge the concerned traffic control department to deploy traffic police personnel during school hours and install safety speed breakers immediately. I hope your reputed publication will highlight this critical civic issue for the safety of our children.

Subject: Urgent request to address illegal garbage dumping near the school campus.

Respected Sir,

I am writing on behalf of the management of Navrachana Vidyalaya to bring to your urgent notice the alarming civic issue of illegal garbage dumping occurring on the empty municipal plot adjacent to our school boundary wall.

Over the past few weeks, local residents and commercial shops have been recklessly using this area as an open waste disposal site. The accumulating garbage is emitting a foul stench and has become a dangerous breeding ground for mosquitoes, posing a severe health hazard to our students and teaching staff. This highly unhygienic environment is severely disrupting our daily academic activities and threatening a potential disease outbreak.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch sanitation workers to clear the accumulated waste.

Furthermore, placing permanent municipal dustbins and imposing strict penalties on illegal dumping would provide a lasting solution.

The Editor, The Indian Express, Bhavnagar 364001

Subject: Concern regarding the nuisance of loudspeakers during board examinations.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local authorities towards the severe nuisance caused by the indiscriminate use of loudspeakers late at night in our locality.

With the crucial state board examinations rapidly approaching, students desperately require a peaceful environment for deep concentration and adequate sleep. Rajkot 360005 20
September 2026

The Editor, The Times of India, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Urgent need for a well-equipped public library in the city.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the complete absence of a well-equipped public library in our rapidly growing city.

Despite being an educational hub with numerous schools and colleges, students and researchers severely lack a quiet, dedicated space for reading. Private libraries and commercial reading rooms charge exorbitant membership fees, making them entirely unaffordable for students from middle-class families. Consequently, the reading culture among the youth is rapidly declining. A public library with a vast collection of academic reference books, daily newspapers, and digital resources is absolutely essential for the intellectual growth of the community.

I strongly urge the municipal corporation to allocate funds and establish a modern public library at the earliest. I hope your reputed publication will highlight this critical educational issue.

The Municipal Commissioner, Bhavnagar Municipal Corporation, Bhavnagar 364001

Subject: Complaint regarding severe waterlogging near the school premises.

Respected Sir,

I am writing on behalf of the management of Navrachana Vidyalaya to bring to your urgent notice the severe issue of waterlogging occurring directly outside our school gates following the recent monsoon rains.

The underground drainage system in this particular area appears to be completely blocked. Even after a brief spell of rain, the entire street gets submerged in knee-deep dirty water. This creates a highly dangerous situation for our young students and parents during arrival and dispersal times. Furthermore, the stagnant water has become a massive breeding ground for mosquitoes, raising serious fears of a dengue or malaria outbreak among the school children.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch a municipal maintenance team to clear the choked drains and provide a permanent solution to this recurring civic problem. We look forward to your prompt action.

Subject: Concern over the rising cases of cybercrime among teenagers.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of parents and educational authorities towards the alarming rise in cybercrime and online fraud targeting teenagers in our city.

With the rapid increase in digital learning and smartphone usage, young students are becoming highly vulnerable to cyberbullying, phishing scams, and identity theft. Many innocent teenagers unknowingly share sensitive personal information on unverified social media platforms, leading to severe mental trauma and financial losses for their families. There is a drastic lack of digital literacy among the youth.

I strongly urge the school authorities to conduct mandatory cyber safety workshops and request the local cyber police to run active awareness campaigns. I hope your publication highlights this critical issue for the safety of our children.

The Editor, The Indian Express, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Concern over the lack of well-maintained public parks and playgrounds.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the severe lack of well-maintained public parks and open playgrounds in our rapidly developing city.

With rampant urbanization and the continuous construction of high-rise buildings, open green spaces have almost completely disappeared. Consequently, children are forced to play on busy, dangerous streets, and senior citizens severely lack safe walking tracks. The few existing municipal parks are heavily littered with garbage, entirely unlit at night, and occupied by anti-social elements, making them completely unsafe for families.

A healthy city absolutely requires green recreational spaces for the physical and mental well-being of its residents. I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently restore the existing parks and allocate dedicated zones for new playgrounds. I hope your publication highlights this critical civic issue.

Despite our repeated complaints to the local ward office, no preventive measures have been initiated yet.

Subject: Urgent complaint regarding non-functional streetlights in our locality.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the residents of Sunrise Park Society to bring to your urgent notice the complete failure of streetlights on our main approach road for the past three weeks.

Furthermore, this prolonged darkness has significantly increased the severe risk of vehicular accidents and has encouraged anti-social elements, raising serious safety and security concerns in our otherwise peaceful neighborhood.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch the municipal electrical maintenance team to repair or replace the faulty streetlights and restore proper illumination in our area. We look forward to your prompt civic action.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of educational authorities and parents towards the alarming rise in cyberbullying incidents among school-going teenagers.

With the rapid increase in digital learning and unrestricted access to social media, young students are becoming highly vulnerable to online harassment, anonymous threats, and digital humiliation. Subject: Concern over the increasing menace of stray dogs in residential areas.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the alarming increase in the population of stray dogs in the Sunrise Park locality.

Over the past few months, the stray dog menace has become a severe threat to the safety of local residents. These aggressive dogs move in large packs, constantly chasing two-wheelers and fiercely barking at pedestrians. Despite multiple complaints to the local ward office, no concrete preventive measures have been taken. I strongly urge the municipal animal control department to urgently capture these aggressive strays and initiate a massive sterilization drive. September 2026

The Editor, The Times of India, Surat 395001

Subject: Concern over the severe physical burden of heavy school bags on children.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of educational authorities and school managements towards the severe physical strain caused by excessively heavy school bags carried by young students daily.

Despite clear government guidelines strictly limiting the weight of school bags, primary children are still forced to carry 6 to 8 kilograms of thick textbooks, heavy workbooks, and multiple notebooks every day. This immense daily physical burden is causing severe back pain, irreversible posture issues, and immense mental fatigue among innocent children. Schools continuously fail to implement a practical timetable that reduces the daily textbook requirement.

I strongly urge the state education department to strictly enforce the installation of personal lockers on school campuses and actively promote the use of digital e-books to drastically reduce this unbearable weight. I hope your publication highlights this critical health issue.

Dear Parents,

This is to officially inform you about a crucial disciplinary decision taken by the school management regarding the possession of electronic devices by students within the school premises.

This practice causes immense academic distraction, disrupts the peaceful classroom environment, and raises severe cyber-safety concerns among teenagers. Therefore, effective from next Monday, 26 October 2026, carrying mobile phones or smartwatches to the campus is strictly prohibited for all students. Any device found will be immediately confiscated and returned only at the end of the academic year.

We strongly request all parents to thoroughly check your child's school bag before they leave home and ensure strict compliance with this rule. In case of any genuine emergency, you may constantly reach your child through the official school landline.

The Editor, The Indian Express, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Urgent need to prioritize mental health awareness in schools.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of educational authorities and parents towards the alarming rise in mental health issues among school-going teenagers.

In today's highly competitive academic environment, students constantly face immense pressure to blindly achieve top grades and secure prestigious university admissions. This relentless stress often leads to severe anxiety, sleep deprivation, and clinical depression. Unfortunately, mental health remains a massive social taboo, and schools severely lack professional on-campus counselors to actively support struggling students. True education should completely focus on holistic well-being, not just numerical marks.

I strongly urge the state education department to strictly mandate the appointment of qualified psychological counselors in every school and conduct regular mental health awareness workshops. I hope your publication highlights this critical issue to initiate positive systemic changes.

I am writing on behalf of the management of Gyanjyot Vidyalaya to urgently highlight the severe danger posed by several open drainage manholes on the main approach road leading to our school gates.

Subject: Important advisory regarding dengue prevention and campus safety measures.

Dear Parents,

This is to officially inform you about the proactive safety measures implemented by the school administration to strictly combat the recent alarming spread of dengue and viral fevers in the city. The physical health and safety of our students is our absolute priority. Over the past weekend, we have conducted an intensive chemical fumigation drive across the entire school campus, completely eliminating any stagnant water from the playgrounds and open drains. Furthermore, effective immediately, all students are strictly advised to wear light-colored, full-sleeve shirts and full trousers to minimize mosquito exposure during school hours.

We strongly request all parents to actively apply mosquito repellent creams on your children before sending them to school. Please monitor their daily health and avoid sending them to campus if they exhibit any severe viral symptoms. We deeply appreciate your continued cooperation.

59. A letter to the Editor regarding the severe lack of public city buses for students.

Priya Sharma 22,
Gokul Society,

15 October 2026

The Editor, The Indian Express, Vadodara 390001

Subject: Concern over the severe lack of public city buses during school hours.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal transport authorities towards the severe shortage of public city buses during peak school hours in our area.

Thousands of secondary and college-going students heavily rely on public transportation for their daily commute. However, the current frequency of municipal buses between 7:00 AM and 8:00 AM is extremely low. Consequently, students are dangerously forced to travel in heavily overcrowded auto-rickshaws, risking severe fatal accidents. Moreover, private school vans charge highly exorbitant monthly fees, making them completely unaffordable for middle-class families. This daily transportation struggle causes immense mental stress and massive academic delays.

I strongly urge the municipal transport corporation to urgently allocate special student-special buses on the main city routes during the morning and afternoon peak hours. I hope your reputed publication highlights this critical civic issue prominently.

Yours faithfully,
Priya Sharma

Subject: Urgent complaint regarding illegal commercial encroachment outside the school gates.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the management of Shanti Niketan High School to urgently highlight the severe civic nuisance caused by massive illegal commercial encroachments directly outside our main school entrance.

Over the past few months, numerous unauthorized food stalls and unregulated street vendors have permanently occupied the footpaths bordering our campus. This massive encroachment creates a highly chaotic bottleneck, causing severe traffic jams during the peak arrival and dispersal hours. Furthermore, these illegal eateries openly dispose of their rotting food waste on the streets, creating a highly unhygienic environment and attracting dangerous stray animals near the students.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch the municipal anti-encroachment squad to strictly clear the footpaths and strictly prohibit any commercial activities within a hundred-meter radius of the school campus. Your prompt intervention is absolutely vital for our students' safety.

Subject: Concern over the severe danger of uncovered manholes in our locality.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the severe danger posed by numerous uncovered drainage manholes in the Sunrise Park locality.

Following the recent underground pipeline maintenance work, the municipal contractors completely failed to securely replace the heavy iron covers on these deep manholes. This gross civic negligence has created a fatal trap for daily commuters, especially young school-going children and senior citizens. The situation becomes exceptionally terrifying at night due to inadequate street lighting, making these deep open drains entirely invisible. Several minor two-wheeler accidents have already occurred this week.

I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently dispatch a maintenance team to permanently cover these dangerous manholes before any major fatal tragedy occurs. I hope your publication highlights this critical civic issue prominently.

The school is situated on a highly busy main road that currently lacks a functional traffic signal, speed breakers, or a designated zebra crossing. During the peak morning arrival and afternoon dispersal hours, students and parents find it extremely dangerous to cross the chaotic road amidst recklessly speeding vehicles. Despite deploying our private security guards, managing the massive traffic bottleneck has become completely impossible, causing daily anxiety among parents.

We kindly request you to urgently instruct the traffic engineering department to install functional traffic lights and paint a clear zebra crossing right outside our campus. Your prompt civic intervention is absolutely vital.

Subject: Concern over the increasing menace of stray animals on city roads.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the severe menace of stray cattle and dogs on the main roads of our rapidly growing city.

In recent months, large herds of stray cattle have started completely blocking major traffic intersections, especially during peak school and office hours. This not only causes massive traffic congestion but also poses a highly fatal risk to two-wheeler riders. Several severe road accidents have occurred recently when these animals suddenly panicked in the middle of heavy traffic. Furthermore, aggressive stray dog packs are creating a constant atmosphere of fear among pedestrians and young children.

I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently initiate a strict drive to capture and safely relocate these stray animals to designated shelters. I hope your publication highlights this critical public safety issue.

Subject: Concern over the miserable condition of public city buses.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal transport authorities towards the highly deplorable condition of the public city buses operating on major routes.

Thousands of young students and daily office commuters heavily rely on this public transportation system. However, a majority of the buses currently in service are severely outdated and poorly maintained. They frequently break down in the middle of heavy traffic, causing massive delays. Furthermore, broken seats, shattered windows, and leaking roofs during the monsoons make the daily commute an absolute nightmare. The extremely low frequency of buses during peak hours dangerously forces passengers to travel in heavily overcrowded conditions.

I strongly urge the municipal transport corporation to urgently repair the existing fleet and introduce new, well-maintained buses for public safety. I hope your publication highlights this critical civic issue.

I am writing to you on behalf of the student council to formally request the urgent allocation of a dedicated and private student counseling room on our school campus.

In today's highly competitive academic environment, students are constantly facing immense mental stress, performance anxiety, and emotional challenges. A private counseling space is absolutely essential to maintain strict student confidentiality and provide a safe, supportive environment for those seeking psychological guidance.

Subject: Urgent concern over the lack of pedestrian safety near city schools.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local traffic authorities towards the severe lack of pedestrian safety measures outside major schools in our rapidly growing city.

During peak morning and afternoon hours, thousands of young students dangerously navigate highly chaotic roads to reach their campuses. Unfortunately, the complete absence of functional zebra crossings, proper footpaths, and designated school-zone speed breakers has made these areas highly accident-prone. Recklessly speeding vehicles and unregulated auto-rickshaws pose a constant, fatal threat to innocent children. Despite numerous complaints from concerned parents, no strict preventive traffic regulations have been implemented yet.

I strongly urge the municipal traffic police to urgently deploy dedicated traffic guards during school hours and install permanent speed-limit signs near all educational zones. I hope your reputed publication highlights this critical public safety issue.

The Editor, The Indian Express, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Concern over severe water scarcity in the city during summer.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the acute water shortage currently prevailing across major residential zones in Rajkot.

Despite being a rapidly developing smart city, the basic municipal water supply in our locality has become highly erratic. Water is supplied for barely twenty minutes on alternate days, and often with extremely low pressure. Consequently, thousands of middle-class families are dangerously forced to rely on highly expensive private water tankers for their daily survival. Furthermore, the continuous depletion of underground water tables due to rampant borewell digging is raising severe long-term environmental concerns.

I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently regularize the daily water supply and strictly mandate rainwater harvesting systems in all new high-rise buildings. I hope your reputed publication highlights this critical civic crisis.

The Principal, St. Xavier's High School, Surat 395007

Subject: Request for organizing a Cyber Security Awareness Workshop.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the student council to formally request the organization of a comprehensive Cyber Security Awareness Workshop on our school campus next month.

With the rapid digitalization of education and increased smartphone usage, students are spending significant time online. Unfortunately, many teenagers remain completely unaware of hidden digital threats, making them highly vulnerable to cyberbullying, phishing scams, and identity theft. A practical workshop conducted by professional cybersecurity experts or local cyber-cell police officers would actively educate students on how to protect their personal data and navigate social media responsibly.

We kindly request you to approve this highly crucial educational initiative and allocate the main auditorium for the session. The student council will meticulously manage all logistical arrangements. We look forward to your positive response.

Yours faithfully,
Rohan Patel Head

September 2026

To, The Parents / Guardians, Delhi Public School, Rajkot 360005

Subject: Important notice regarding the mandatory use of student identity cards.

Dear Parents,

This is to officially inform you about a highly crucial security decision implemented by the school administration regarding the daily entry and exit of students on the school campus.

The physical safety of our students is our absolute priority. To strictly monitor campus access and prevent unauthorized entries, it is now entirely mandatory for all students to wear their official school-issued Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) cards at all times. These smart identity cards will automatically register your child's attendance at the entrance gates and instantly send an SMS notification to your registered mobile numbers.

Effective from next Monday, no student will be permitted inside the campus without their ID card.

We strongly request all parents to ensure their child wears the identity card daily. We deeply appreciate your continued cooperation in maintaining school security.

Yours sincerely,
Dr. Meera Shah
Principal

89. A letter to the Editor regarding the highly deplorable condition of public libraries.

The Editor, The Indian Express, Ahmedabad 380001

Subject: Concern over the highly deplorable condition of public libraries in the city.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the severe deterioration of public libraries across our rapidly growing city.

Despite Ahmedabad being a major educational hub, students and researchers severely lack well-maintained reading spaces. The few existing municipal libraries are in a highly pathetic state, featuring severely outdated book collections, broken seating furniture, and completely dysfunctional cooling systems. Furthermore, they absolutely lack modern digital e-book resources and stable internet connectivity, which are entirely essential for contemporary competitive exam preparation. The surrounding noise pollution further ruins the academic environment.

A healthy city absolutely requires quiet, well-equipped intellectual spaces. I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently allocate dedicated funds to thoroughly renovate and digitalize these public libraries. I hope your publication highlights this critical educational issue.

Yours faithfully,
Vikram Joshi

The Municipal Commissioner, Bhavnagar Municipal Corporation, Bhavnagar 364001

Subject: Urgent complaint regarding massive illegal parking outside the school campus.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the management of Gyan Mandir Vidyalaya to urgently highlight the severe safety hazard caused by massive illegal vehicle parking directly outside our main school entrance.

Over the past few months, the main approach road bordering our school boundary has been completely occupied by unauthorised parked commercial transport vehicles and private cars. This massive encroachment creates a highly chaotic bottleneck, completely blocking the movement of our official school buses. During the peak morning arrival and afternoon dispersal hours, young students are dangerously forced to navigate through these tightly parked vehicles, severely risking fatal road accidents.

We kindly request you to urgently instruct the municipal traffic police to actively tow away these illegally parked vehicles and strictly declare a 'No Parking Zone' within a hundred-meter radius of the school campus. Your prompt civic intervention is absolutely vital.

Yours faithfully,
Anjali Verma

Dear Parents,

94. A letter to the Editor regarding the severe lack of safe drinking water facilities in public places.

October 2026

The Editor, The Indian Express, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Concern over the severe lack of safe drinking water facilities in public places.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the severe lack of safe and clean drinking water facilities across major public places in our city.

Despite being a rapidly developing urban center, major public transit hubs like city bus stands, railway stations, and municipal parks completely lack functional drinking water kiosks. Consequently, thousands of daily commuters and tourists are dangerously forced to consume highly unhygienic water from unregulated local vendors or purchase expensive packaged plastic bottles. This absolute lack of a basic civic amenity is causing a massive rise in waterborne diseases like typhoid and jaundice among the poorer sections of society.

A healthy city absolutely requires accessible and safe drinking water for all its citizens. I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently install free RO water ATMs at all major public gatherings.

Yours faithfully,
Vikram Singh

05 September 2026

The Municipal Commissioner, Bhavnagar Municipal Corporation, Bhavnagar 364001

Subject: Urgent request for anti-mosquito chemical fogging in our residential locality.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the residents of Sunrise Park Society to urgently highlight the alarming mosquito menace currently prevailing in our locality following the recent heavy monsoon rains.

The massive accumulation of stagnant rainwater in nearby empty municipal plots and heavily choked open drainage lines has created a dangerous breeding ground for mosquitoes. Consequently, there has been a severe and sudden spike in vector-borne diseases such as dengue and malaria among the local residents. This highly unhygienic condition is posing a severe, direct health hazard, particularly threatening the lives of our young school-going children and vulnerable senior citizens.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch a municipal health department team to immediately conduct an extensive chemical fogging drive and spray larvicides across our entire neighborhood.

Your prompt civic intervention is absolutely essential to prevent a fatal public health crisis.

Yours faithfully,

99. A letter to the Editor regarding the severe rise in city air pollution.

Vikram Singh 45,
Gokuldham Society,
Rajkot 360005 10
October 2026

The Editor, The Times of India, Rajkot 360001

Subject: Concern over the severe rise in air pollution levels in the city.

Respected Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I wish to draw the urgent attention of the local municipal authorities towards the alarming deterioration of air quality in our rapidly growing city over the past few months.

The massive increase in unregulated vehicular traffic and toxic emissions from nearby industrial zones have pushed the Air Quality Index (AQI) to highly dangerous levels. Consequently, local hospitals are reporting a severe spike in chronic respiratory issues, asthma, and severe allergies, particularly affecting innocent young children and vulnerable senior citizens. Furthermore, the rapid cutting down of old roadside trees for road expansion has completely destroyed the city's natural green cover, making the air heavily suffocating.

I strongly urge the municipal corporation to urgently initiate a massive tree plantation drive and strictly regulate industrial emissions. I hope your reputed publication highlights this critical environmental hazard.

Yours faithfully,

The Municipal Commissioner, Bhavnagar Municipal Corporation, Bhavnagar 364001

Subject: Urgent complaint regarding the highly deplorable condition of the local public park.

Respected Sir,

I am writing to you on behalf of the Sunrise Residents Association to urgently highlight the severe civic negligence regarding the maintenance of the municipal public park situated in our locality. Over the past few months, the park has been completely neglected by the municipal maintenance staff. The walking tracks are heavily covered with overgrown weeds, and the children's play equipment is dangerously broken and heavily rusted. Furthermore, due to completely non-functional streetlights, the park is entirely pitch dark after sunset. This prolonged darkness has encouraged anti-social elements to occupy the benches at night, making the space completely unsafe for families and senior citizens.

We kindly request you to urgently dispatch a municipal maintenance team to thoroughly clean the park, repair the broken equipment, and immediately restore the lighting facilities. Your prompt civic intervention is absolutely vital.
